

Historians and Bibliography

The entire 2Nj would like to thank John for his contributions to the unit over the years. He has researched much of the information used in our impressions today.

Bibliography

The following is a list of primary (written then) and secondary (written now) sources regarding the New Jersey Brigade and Colonial and Revolutionary New Jersey in no particular order other than alphabetical. Some titles are now out of print, but may be available at your local library.

New material is always being published, so please check this page regularly for new titles.
